A LETTER FROM MARIA
(Orphans Lifeline International)

Dear Sponsors,

I greet you all in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior. How are you? Let me hope that God has protected you and He is always at your side. Towards my side, I am very glad and so appreciative to God because He has provided me with a gift of life.

I will use this opportunity to thank you for the great job you're doing towards my life. Thank you for providing us school fees in time, providing us with food and many other basic needs. I will also like to thank you for entrusting our mum, Naumi, she is a good person and beyond that she is a God fearing woman.

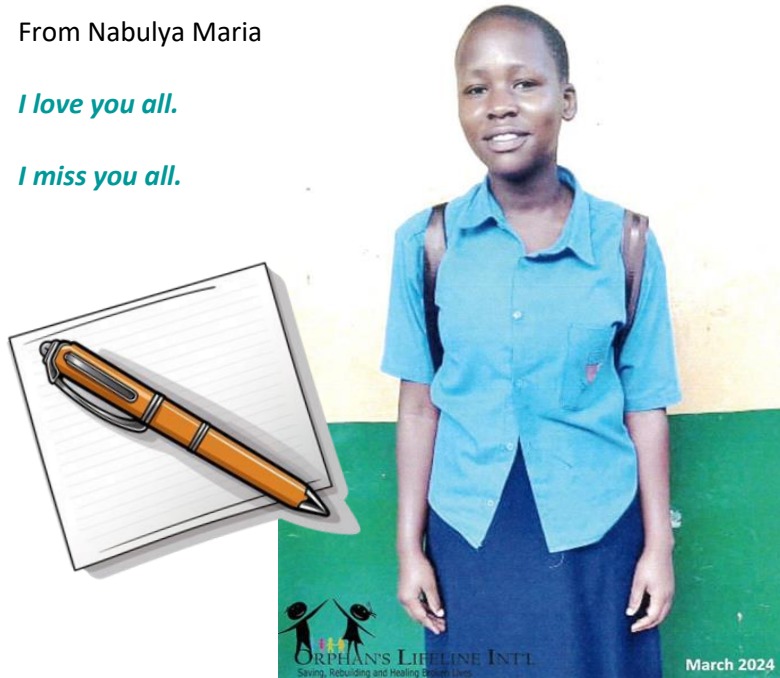

I thank God who has protected you and enabled you to stand with us in every situation because it is not easy to find a person like you. I am so happy. Our term started and we are all studying. Thank you for providing us with requirements and school fees.

May the almighty God bless you abundantly.

From Nabulya Maria

I love you all.

I miss you all.

TONK TALK ...

LESSON FROM A RING OF FIRE

An ungodly man was once trying to convince a Christian that his religion was of no use and that he never would be any better for it. "After all," said the scoffer, "What has your Jesus ever done for you?"

"He has saved me!" said the Christian, with great animation, "He has saved me!" "And what does that mean?" said the ungodly man. "Step with me to the door," was the reply, "and I will show you." So, saying this, he took him outside of the house, picked up a quantity of dry leaves and straw, and made a large circle of them. He then sought a worm; and having found one, he placed it in the center of the ring. After that he applied a lighted match to the material that surrounded it, the scoffer looking on all the time with no little astonishment. As the heat of the fire approached the poor worm, it began to writhe and show symptoms of distress but could not get out of the burning ring. The Christian darted his hand through the smoke, plucked the worm out of its dangerous position, and placed it on the green grass, out of reach of all danger. "There," said he, "that is what the blessed Jesus has done for me: I was exposed to the flames of hell – there was no possibility of escape; I was condemned and ready to perish, and He rescued me by dying for my sins, thus snatching me as a brand from the burning; and He has given me, a poor dying worm, a place near His heart." (Author Unknown)

Can you speak of yourself as having a saved relationship with Jesus Christ? If not, come now, "repent and be baptized" (Acts2:38). "And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name.'" (Acts 22:16).

In Christ's Love, Mark T. Tonkery

THANK YOU

Dear Church Family, Thank you so much for your thoughts and prayers for me. I’m slowly improving. I miss you all very very much. May the Lord bless you and keep you. May His love shine upon you and give you peace.

Most Sincerely, -Martha Hunt-

To our Norval Park family, I just wanted to take a moment to say thank you to each and every one of you for all the prayers, cards, FB messages, meals, gifts and support through this journey. I am recovering from the 1st steps and start chemo April 8th followed by physical therapy to get my range of motion back and endurance up. I will have 4 sessions of chemo over the next few months and continue to pray I will have more good than bad days so I may be able to get out more. I look forward to returning as able. Lots of love! -Audra Milatovich and Family-
